

Miracle Corner of the World Commemorates 14th Anniversary of the Rwandan Genocide

By ISSEU Photos by ISSEU

Miracle Corner of the World hosted on April 6th and 7th 2008 a two day special Genocide Awareness Program on the occasion of the 14th

Krauss, Executive Director of Voices of Rwanda and Robert Van Lierop, Attorney and former Ambassador of the Republic of Vanuatu to the Holocaust survivor, Eugenie Mukeshimana, a Rwanda Genocide survivor and activist, Meliha Pihura a Bosnia genocide scholar and

Above photo, panelists at the Museum of Jewish Heritage Rr John Woodall, Yvette Rugasaguhunga, Taylor Krauss, Mary Kayitesi and Robert Van Lierop

Above photo, Mr. Eddie Bergman, Executive Director of the Africa Travel Association and co-founder of Miracle Corner of the World with other participants at the Rwandan Genocide 14th Anniversary commemoration.

Rwandan Ambassador to the UN Mr. Joseph Nsengimana

anniversary of the Rwanda Genocide. The commemoration started with the screening of "Voices of Rwanda" a collection of Rwanda Genocide Survivors testimonies followed by a panel discussion with Yvette Rugasaguhunga and Mary Kayitesi Blewitt, both Rwanda Genocide Survivors, Dr John Woodall of the International Conflict Resolution, Taylor

United Nations. Guests included Ambassador Joseph Nsengimana, Permanent Representative of Rwanda to the United Nations. On Monday, April 7th, 2008, a roundtable discussion was held at the NYU Law School with Karine Birazianm, Co Founder of the Genocide Education Network of Illinois, David Gewirtzman an activist, Gouma Hari Mahamat a Darfur Genocide advocate and Mark Weitzman Director of Simon Wiesenthal Center's Task Force against Hate.

ARE YOU READY NEW YORK?

To learn more about preparing for emergencies, call 311 or visit NYC.gov/readyny.

OEM
New York City
Office of Emergency Management