

Sierra Leonean Vice President Meets with Africans in the Diaspora

NEW YORK, New York, Apr. 8 - The Vice President of the Republic of Sierra Leone, Mr. Sam Sumana, met with Africans in the Diaspora, at the New York University in a meeting coordinated between Africa House and the Africa Travel Association. The Executive Director of the Africa House is Professor Yaw Nyarko, who is also Professor of Economics, and Mr. Eddie Bergman is the Executive Director of the Africa Travel Association. It was a jam-packed event, and a lot of people were impressed with Mr. Sumana's speech and answers to questions.

What impressed most people was the sacrifice Mr. Sumana made to return to Sierra Leone during the thick of the crisis in the country. But even then, he was in the opposition party, which won the first post-crisis election, against President Tejan Kabbah's party.

Above Photo: Hon. Vice President Sam Sumana (left) with Dr. Chika Onyeani, Dean of the African Media in America, and Publisher/Editor in Chief of the African Sun Times. He is also Chair/CEO of the Celebrate Africa Foundation

The Hon. Vice President Sam Sumana with "Mr. Africa" Ogo Sow, Regional Coordinator for the Diaspora of the Africa Travel Association, and a broadcaster of record - go to www.ogosow.com

Mr. Sidique Wai, President of the United African Congress, with the Executive Director of the Africa Travel Association, Mr. Eddie Bergman

See what motivates Setor on Page 28

SETOR ATTIPOE